

Silver Cross March Newsletter

And I thought January was a quick month! February certainly flew by and now we have entered our Lenten journey. If you are like me, I was still pondering what the Lord wanted me to do to journey closer to Him for the next 40 days ... now a little over 30 days. Do not be discouraged if Ash Wednesday came and went and your sacrifice is not declared. There is still time to do small and great things for Him.

I sense He is asking many of us to rest. This seems to be a hard promise for me to make to Him. The world keeps us busy with constant connections and movement. I believe one of the best ways to shut the world out and rest our body is with good Catholic reads and programming intertwined with silence and prayer. Yes, I do have my book and journal ... "A Story of a Soul" by Saint Therese of Lisieux or best known as the Little Flower.

I pray that you will be able to find a great read, prayer devotion, and a new Saint to share a friendship with and simply rest with Him this Lenten season. Our little team is working hard to ensure that we have great books, prayer Devotions, beautiful Catholic images, and sacramentals to heighten our senses and our love for Him. We are happy to help in any way!

AND OH, the JOY of now being able to offer beautiful First Communion Dresses!
The dresses and veils are simply delightful. We do have limited dresses on hand, but with lead time we can order dresses for that special little young lady and her First Communion.
